

VS-211HA

Powerful Experiences Need a Powerful Switcher

The award-winning Kramer VS-211HA automatic HDMI standby switcher is the perfect solution for the modern House of Worship. With priority or last-connected switching, the VS-211HA makes delivering powerful AV experiences effortless to everyone at the service. When services start, the live feed can be automatically switched into overflow areas such as auxiliary rooms and digital signage spaces. When services are over, the VS-211HA reverts back to digital signage or other local sources.
